Lingerie Frock of Net

By La Racontouse.

Fascinating lingerie frocks are shown in white net with some form of detail trimming that proves most effective as contrast. Net is undoubtedly most popular because it is so serviceable. Very often lace either in filet or cluny pattern is combined, this lending a very rich trimming note. The frock illustrated is developed in white net, bound with narrow folds of satin. The very wide underskirt is befrilled with net and tucking of ribbon. Dainty clusters of flowers here and there afford a charming color note.
